THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is now the largest paper printed in the State, and having the matter published in the DAILY to select from, we challenge comparison with any newspaper in Wisconsin. In correct political doctrine, in reliable market reports, in giving the latest news from all quarters, in literary merit and in local information relating to this city and county, we shall spare no pains to make the WEEKLY GAZETTE worthy of public patronage and support.

THE NEWS.

The gratifying intelligence that the Army of the Potomac is within 15 miles of Richmond, is conveyed to us by the official bulletin of Mr. Stanton printed in another column. A perusal of our dispatches will convey an idea of the manner in which General Grant has successively outgeneraled Lee. No sooner is the rebel general safely within his entrenchments than the imperturbable hero of Vicksburg quietly slips his army past Lee and takes up a position a little nearer the point of destination than before, thus saving hundreds of lives until he can meet the enemy upon ground that will afford him something like an even chance. Fifteen miles is uncomfortably near, and the terror and excitement that must have seized upon those insolent rebels in Richmond, can be imagined better than described.

Breckinridge is reported to be at Hanover Court House with a certain number of troops estimated at from 30,000 to 100,000 men; which means simply, that nobody knows anything at all about it. According to some maps Hanover town, where Grant is reported to have taken position, is directly east of Hanover C. H., and upon others it is laid down in a south easterly line; in either case, our forces are represented to be quite as near Richmond as either Breckenridge or Lee.

To an unsophisticated eye the position of our army now seems to be one of great peril, as the combined forces of Lee, Breckenridge and Beuregard must greatly out number those of Grant. We can only hope that to the military eye our heroic Lieut. General is and must continue to be master of the situation.

Butler's troops are safely entrenched on a narrow neck of land lying between the James and the Appomatox rivers, when he is guarded by the gun boats. Doesticks tells how at one time he inserted his nose between the teeth of his antagonist and held the fellow safely to the floor. Butler is holding Beauregard in pretty much the same way.

The news from Sherman continues to be favorable.

Another of the pioneers in the anti-slavery movement has been stricken down by the remorseless hand of death. Hon. Joshua R. Giddings, died suddenly of heart disease, on Friday night. His age was 69.

STATE NEWS.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says: Mr. Bentley has sold out the furniture of the Walker House to H. A. Chase of Prairie du Chien, a brother-in-law to Mayor Kirby the owner of the building. Mr. Chase will keep the Walker hereafter.——A new passenger depot is being built at Prairie du Chien.——Crops are looking well in Richland County.——The Green Bay Advocate says: The Oconto company that left here on Wednesday, had a liberal share of printers in its ranks. We noticed Henry B. Ginty, one of the proprietors of the Pioneer, and J. W. Hall, editor and proprietor of the Lumberman, in the ranks, apparently very happy in being able to serve their country for a hundred days.——The La Crosse Democrat says, We saw a man this morning, who had over three hundred trout, which were taken from one of our valley streams by himself yesterday. We call this good sport, and good work. It also says, judging from the large emigration into Minnesota, the rush will be larger than last season by a considerable. We see daily, long streams of teams and prairie schooners loading on the ferries, and awaiting ferriage at this point.——The last Oshkosh Northwestern says: "We are pained to learn of the sudden death of Judge Bryan, at his residence on Doty's Island, Menasha. We understand he was stricken by apoplexy near his house on Sunday last, and was found lying upon the ground insensible. He lingered till Tuesday. Judge Bryan was a gentleman of intelligence and high social and public position. He held several offices of importance under the general government, and has been for many years a prominent leader in the Democratic party of this State."——The Whitewater Register gives the following weight of fleeces taken from some blooded sheep owned by O. Cook. 1 Buck, 1 year old: 15 lbs; 4 two year old Ewes, respectively—7½lbs—8lbs 8 oz.—10½ lbs—9 lbs 7 oz.——The Prairie du Chien Union says those horse thieves, who passed through this county,—robbed the Bridgeport Post office etc., have returned through Grant Co., stolen several horses, went to Vernon county, and were there arrested and lodged in jail—except one, for whom a large reward is offered. He has already served two terms in the Penitentiary, and is running for a third term.——The Waupun Times says Caroline Schaff, sentenced to four years imprisonment in the States Prison for larceny by the Milwaukee Circuit Court, was brought up a few days since. Caroline is an old offender, having been discharged from the Sing Sing prison only about three months. Adelbert T. Brockway, a boy of 17 years, was brought up by the Sheriff of St. Croix Co. one day last week, sentenced to six months imprisonment, Jeremiah Conkling, sentenced on the 16th of May, 1863, for five years for assault with intent to rape, by the Municipal Court of Milwaukee, was pardoned by Governor Lewis, on the 16th inst. His pardon was granted on the ground that there was always a grave doubt of his real guilt.—The Green Bay Advocate says the St. Paul, owned by Mr. Tremain, of Neenah, has paid this port a visit, and started for the western waters. She is a fine looking stern wheel boat, and we hope to see her here again. By-and-by, in the "fullness of time," we expect to announce a regular line of Green Bay and St. Paul steamers. Don't believe it? Well, wait and see.——The Milwaukee News says at a late hour on Thursday evening the night patrol of the Seventh Ward discovered an old woman of sixty years or more, lying on the door-step of a residence on Main Street, but thinly clad, and moaning and shivering from the chill night air. Upon interrogation she gave her name as Anna Miller, stating that she had sons and daughters now living in this city, who had abandoned her in her old age, leaving her to subsist as best she could upon the crumbs that dropped from other people's tables.

The Irish Brigade.

The following interesting sketch of the recent services, sufferings and gallantry of the Irish Brigade is derived from a correspondence of Lieut. R. P. King, 69th, Regt., N. Y. Vols,

BIVOUAC 69TH REGT. N. Y. V., IRISH BRIGADE.
FOUR MILES SOUTH ON SPOTTSYLVANIA COURT HOUSE, May 27th, 1864.

* * * * I shall not now detail our first marches from the crossing of the Rapidan to Chancellorsville, but commence with our battles in the "Wilderness"—no misnomer, I assure you. On the 3d of this month the Brigade first formed line of battle in front of a strongly entrenched and hidden enemy. Col. Smith, our acting Brigadier-General, rode along our front and addressed the boys. Almost while he was speaking, fire was opened upon us, and some was killed and wounded, poor old Mooney being the first man killed in our company. We advanced and fought till near midnight; and at early dawn, while we were erecting breastworks, the enemy opened a destructive fire on us from masked batteries in the woods, which soon took fire, and of course burned up the dead and wounded of the previous night—and also consumed our breastworks in many places. We were repeatedly "smoked out," and yet had to stand the fire of the enemy who in the afternoon made several splendid charges on us, but each time were hurled back. Fearful, indeed, were to us the then surrounding scenes. In front were swarms of Grey backs, who, with a terrible tenacity and gallantry, sought to break our lines, while all through the woods the flames swept away the undergrowth and licked the tall trees, which in being damaged and consumed assumed most fanciful shapes. Not an eye closed amongst us that night; but at morning we found the enemy had retreated, and we followed up. From then up to the 12th we had a constant succession of marching, fighting and entrenching—yet no such thing as sleep, nor for an hour were we wholly out of range of the enemy's fire. Indeed, from the 3d to the 13th was one prolonged battle; and when the grand struggle of the 12th came off our recruits were veterans. On that morning, after a most wearying march, we reached a clearing in front of the enemy's entrenchments—perhaps I ought to say fortifications, for those works were immensely strong and extended for miles. These we, who were of the first division, were ordered to take. Our men had to rush at them through a fire of grape and rifle-balls. Men dropped in scores, but the rest never faltered, and onour springing into the outside ditch, the rebels, after dreadful havoc, broke, and in swarms took to the woods in the rear. For some time we held their works; but on their being heavily reinforced they returned and drove us out. Again we drove them from the rifle-pits, but only after terrible slaughter, in which our Brigade got very much scattered, and I found myself with Blake and about a dozen of our company. It was then that Blake showed himself a soldier. We rallied some men belonging to several regiments, and Blake led them through a shower of balls to the opposite side of the works, intending to follow the enemy to the woods, and would have done so but I persuaded him that it was certain death. He then took the regimental flag (which was the only color in that part of the line) and got upon the highest part of the work and stood there waving it and calling to us, "come on, boys, and I will show you how to fight."—Giving up the flag to the Sergeant, he went in with any men he could find; and while a most infernal fire raged from both sides he fought conspicuously in the extreme front till he was struck in the knee. I immediately got some help and was in the act of carrying him off when he yelled out for me to save myself, that the Rebs. were upon us. I looked around and found some but a few paces from us, and as their firing had wounded one of our carrying party, and struck me in the back, which, however, was luckily shielded by my coiled-up rubber blanket, I had, for the time, to leave Blake, as he ordered, to avoid being made prisoner. After that it was charge after charge by both parties to get possession of the entrenchments, and finally after several hours of hard fighting and immense slaughter, we succeeded in holding that part of the line. Then I went back to where I left the gallant Blake, and was told that the stretchers' men had been around and carried off some wounded men, so I am sure he is in some hospital, or, perhaps, already sent on towards Fredericksburg. If so, we may first hear of him in Washington or with you in New York. I miss him very much. We left camp at Stevensburg with 75 muskets; now I command 32.

Captain Foley and some other officers of the Brigade have just rejoined from Alexandria, where they had been doing duty. The Corcoran Legion have also came up. The boys are all quite well and eager for work, which, no doubt, they will soon have.

THE WASHINGTON correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette undertakes to show that Secretary Stanton is chiefly indebted to the enterprise of newspaper correspondents for the information which he dispatches to Gen. Dix and others, in the shape of "official bulletins." He not only cites chapter and verse to sustain his position, but he also shows wherein the Secretary was not so well posted as the newspaper men.

ISLAND TEN has been evacuated, the guns brought away and the negroes sent to Helena to work on plantations. The island is deemed of no importance as a military post, hence its abandonment.

Minnesota and Wisconsin Railroads.

The following remarks were made by Mr. Sloan in the House, in reply to some observations of Mr. Donnelly, of Minnesota:

"The gentleman from Minnesota has referred to the monopoly which Wisconsin at present enjoys of the carrying trade of Minnesota. It is true as he states it, but I can assure him and the House that Wisconsin does not desire to control or monopolize that great carrying trade at the expense of the interests of Minnesota. We fully appreciate the fact that this road, to aid in the construction of which it is proposed to give this grant of land, is of vital consequence to the State of Minnesota, and hence the members on the floor from Wisconsin favor it.

In answer to the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. Holman) I desire simply to say a word. If the gentleman seeks to make these lands lying in the northern portions of the States of Minnesto and Wisconsin of any value whatever to the Government, he must give us railroads for opening them up to settlement, for they will never be sold unless railroads are built. In all these land grants the alternate sections reserved by the Government, where the roads are built, are worth more to the government than all the lands would be without the roads. And it is the only means by which these lands will ever be settled. They will remain a waste for twenty, thirty or forty years, unless these roads are built.

In relation to the other point made by the gentleman from Indian, that these lands should be reserved for homesteads for actual settlers, I can tell the gentleman that any man who is familiar with that section of country, the northern part of Minnesota and Wisconsin, knows that settlers will not locate on these lands unless they have facilities for carrying their produce to market and bringing back the necessaries of life to the settlements. Any man in that section of country who is located more than twenty miles from the line of railroad has gone so far that it is utterly impossible for him to cultivate the soil, or engage in agricultural pursuits with any hope of profit to himself. It is a losing business for him; he cannot afford it. The only means by which that country can ever be settled will be by Congress exercising the wise policy of giving these grants of the public domain in alternate sections for the constrution of railroads. In that way a population will be brought to settle in that portion of the country. The country itself is desirable; the soil is fertile, susceptible of cultivation, and its settlement will add to our wealth and prosperity. It will add a hardy people to the population of this country.

In my judgment the views which have been expressed upon this floor in hostility to these land grants are based upon a narrow illiberal policy, and upon an ignorance of the true condition and want of that great section of our country.

The section of country in Wisconsin, through which the line of road passes for which a grant of land has been made, for a hundred miles contains no settlements whatever, put remains and unbroken wilderness stretching away to the shores of Lake Superior. By giving these alternate sections of lands you will introduce a population and settlement upon these lands, and by that means the Government will be able to sell the lands reserved by it.

I do not desire to occupy the attention of the committee, but it seems to me the arguments are strong and irrefutable in favor of grants of this kind. No gentleman, even though he may live upon the seaboard, who has given any attention to the condition of this country should refuse, in view of the great interests at stake, to give his vote in favor of the grants.

A WASHINGTON letter writer states that fully two-thirds of those who are reported as slightly wounded in the battles of the "Wilderness," are scarcely deserving to be considered as disabled, and that the fighting was nothing compared with that at Pea Ridge, Pittsburg Landing or Gettysburg.

INSURE WITH THE PHŒNIX INSURANCE COMPANY, HARTFORD.—Our mode of adjusting losses. Feeling it a special duty I owe to the Phœnix Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., I take great pleasure in expressing my thankfulness for the promptness and liberality they have exhibited in honorably adjusting and paying my claim, for loss sustained by the total destruction of my brick store, building and stock of merchandise contained therein in Harrodsburg Ky., a few days since, and upon which I had an insurance in the PHŒNIX.

I am to-day in receipt of the amount of my claim $9,500 sixty days before the same was due, according to the terms of the policy, which is satisfactory evidence in my mind that the PHŒNIX is the Company to do business with.

THE FIREMEN'S PARTY.—On Saturday we inadvertently omitted to make mention of the pleasant party at the Hyatt House, for the benefit of the fire department. The number present was not as large as we had expected to see, but those who had the management of the details of the party, had acquitted themselves so admirably that the occasion was one of uninterrupted enjoyment to all who attended. Both supper and music were excellent.

PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEW OF JANESVILLE.—Mr. J. F. Barks, of Richmond Ind., has succeeded in getting a handsome photographic view of this city taken, from the High School Building. It is of course true to life, and those who wish such a picture will do well to subscribe at once, it being sold only on subscription. An agent will call upon our citizens to solicit their names, or those who choose to do so will have an opportunity of subscribing at the art gallery of Mr. Clark on Milwaukee street. may30d1t-606.

KNABE'S PIANOS.—Mr. Wilson—Dear Sir:—The piano forte you furnished for the Varian-Hoffman concerts in this city, I pronounce to be the finest instrument I have had the pleasure of performing on during a long tour. Having seen and examined the pianos of Knabe's manufacture before, I merely state what I sincerely believe, and in unison with other pianists who have the same opportunity of judging as myself, that they are the best in use.

Truly yours, E. HOFFMAN.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH.—A call is made in the Register of this week for a meeting of the wardens and vestry, and all others who may feel an interest in the welfare of the society of St. Luke's Church, to meet in the vestry of the church on to-morrow evening, at half past seven o'clock, for the purpose of taking into consideration the policy of securing the services of a minister. Rev. H. W. Spaulding, formerly of Janesville, well and favorably known in this community, has signified his willingness to come here, provided the amount of his salary can be raised. The Church has stood idle for many months, a continual reproach to the Society, and this community generally, and we hope they may be successful in their efforts and again open its doors.—Whitewater Register.

WISCONSIN STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The fifth annual convention of the Wisconsin State Sunday School Union, will be held in the Congregational Church, Janesville, June 14th, 15th, and 16th, 1864, commencing at 3 o'clock Tuesday, and closing Thursday evening.

Every pastor, superintendent, and teacher in the State, is affectionately invited to be present, and it is most earnestly hoped, that in no event, will any school fail to be represented, at least by one delegate.

It is believed that this will be the largest and best Sunday School Convention that has ever been held in Wisconsin. Ralph Wells, of New York city, Rev. J. H. Vincent, of Rockford, Ill., E. D. Jones, of St. Louis, and numerous other well known friends of the cause, are expected to attend, while the fact that the Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Minnesota conventions are to be held on the 28 and 31st of May, and 7th and 31st of June, respectively, thus forming with our own, a chain of North-Western Sunday School Conventions, will doubtless lead many Eastern men to avail themselves of the opportunity of being present.

Arrangements have been made with the various railroad companies, by which delegates paying full fare going to the convention, will be entitled to a free pass from the State Secretary on their return. It is expected, also, that a similar arrangement will be made with the boats running on Lake Michigan. The Northwestern Packet company will carry delegateds in companies of twenty or more, at two-thirds the usual rate. To avoid question as to return passes, delegates are requested to obtain credentiatls, signed by the pastor or superintendent.

The citizens of Janesville are hospitably arranging to provide free entertainment for members of the convention, and such as intend to be present are requested to notify the chairman of the reception committee, Willard Merrill, at as early a day as possible.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Maj. Gen. Dix:—An official dispatch from the headquarters of the army of the Potomac at Magahyck Church, 10 miles from Hanover town, dated yesterday at 5 P.M., has just been received. It states that our army was withdrawn to the north side of the North Anna Thursday night, and moved towards Hanover town.

The place designated for crossing the Pamunky at 9 o'clock yesterday, Friday, morning, Sheridan with the 1st and 2d Divisions of cavalry took possession of Hanover Ferry and Hanover town, finding there only a rebel vidette. The 1st Division of the 6th corps arrived at 10 A. M., and now hold the place with sufficient force of cavalry, infantry and artillery to resist any attack likely to be made upon him. The remainder of the corps are pressing forward with rapidity.

A later dispatch dated 7 o'clock this morning, 28th, from Headquarters at Magehych Church, has also been received. It reports that everything goes on finely. Weather clear and cool. The troops came up rapidly and in great spirits, and the army will be beyond the Pamunky by noon.

Breckinridge is at Hanover Court House with a force variously reported from 30,000 to 100,000. Wickham's and Logan's brigade of cavalry are also there. The dispatch further states that after seizing Hanover Ferry yesterday, Gen. Tarbert captured 75 cavalry including six officers, that the rebel cavalry is exceedingly demoralized and flies before ours on every occasion.

A dispatch from Gen. Sherman May 26, 6 A M., near Dallas, reports that the enemy discovering his move to turn Altoona, marched to meet our forces at Dallas. Our columns met the enemy about a mile east of the Pumpkin-vine Creek, and we pushed them back about 3 miles to the point where the roads fork to Atlanta and Marietta. Here Johnston has chosen a strong line, and made hasty but strong parapets of timber and earthworks. Gen. Sherman's right is at Dallas. The centre about three miles north. The country is densely wooded, broken and no roads of any consequence. We have had many sharp encounters, but nothing decisive.—no dispatches from any fields of operations have been received to-day.

[Signed] E. M. STANTON, Sec. War.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The Times special says Grant's reconnoisance on Wednesday, showed the rebels in full force and holding a powerful position in our immediate front somewhat in advance of Little River. The ground was also very favorable to him, and he had occupied every hour in fortifying. If driven back from here even, he had the elaborately prepared line of the South Anna to fall back upon. Grant therefore determined to re-cross the North Anna, swing around to the left over the Pamunky, and leave Lee to enjoy his position. A cavalry demonstration made to divert the attention of the enemy, while Grant's movement took place, proved entirely successful. When it was accomplished the rebels were completely taken by surprise.

The Herald's correspondent says a wounded rebel officer says their loss in the late battles reached 30,000.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Times' special says Ledlies' brigade, composed of the 10th regulars, 35th, 57th and 59th Mass., and 4th regulars, met with a repulse on crossing the North Anna. They had crossed on a run and were driving in the rebel skirmishers when a charge was made instantly from a concealed battery, and the rebels opened a terrible fire of grape and cannister. The brigade fell back to cover in a piece of woods, when in the height of a thunder storm the rebels charged and drove our men towards the river just as another brigade came up and checked the advance of the enemy.

160 of the brigade were killed, wounded and missing.

The World's special says that there was considerable skirmishing on Friday, but no heavy fighting near Hanover Court House.

Grant's movements are progressing well and rapidly. Most of the casualties are among New England troops.

FROM MADISON.

To Gov Lewis, Madison:

WASHINGTON, May 30.—We have advices from the army of the Potomac down to 7 o'clock this morning. On Thursday night Gen. Grant commenced a movement to turn the enemy's position between the North and South Anna, by passing rapidly down the north side of the Pamunky, and crossing at Hanover Town. This was in course of successful accomplishment, and it was believed the whole army would be across by noon to-day, at Hanover Town and Ferry, which brings our army within 15 miles of Richmond.

E. M. STANTON, Sec'y of War.

FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Steamer City of Baltimore, from Liverpool 18th and Queenstown 19th, arrived this morning. Brilliant forcing weather for crops.

The German-Danish conference held 3 hours on the 17th. All members present. The Daily News says they can hardly be said to have advanced a single step, and the prospect of agreement is as distant as ever. No common basis discussion agreed upon. Germans repudiate altogether the treaty engagements. Conference adjourned till the 28th of May, when more than half the time fixed for truce with have expired. The Daily News' telegram says France advocates prolonged suppression of hostilities if necessary. Danish advices continue to charge the Germans with plundering and confiscation after the armistic was declared.

The La France denies the rumors of the probable Ministerial change in France.

The protracted trial of La Pomnevais for poisoning resulted in a verdict of guilty and he was sentenced to death.

WHEELING, May 30.—Gen. Hunter has reduced his army to light marching order, and moved it from Cedar Creek. He issued an order that the army is to live on the country through which it passes.

FROM HAVANA.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Steamer Cassandra from New Orleans 21st and Merrimac 22d arrived. Papers contain no news.

Havana papers mention the capture of Monte Cristo by the Spanish in St. Domingo.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

WASHINGTON, May 30, 9 A. M.—Gen. Dix: No official despatches from the army of the Potomac since my last telegram Saturday evening.

A telegram from Sherman, near Dallas, May 29th, reports that an engagement occurred on Saturday between the enemy and McPhersons corps. The rebels were driven back with a loss of 250 killed, and wounded left in our hands, and about 300 prisoners. Our loss not over 300.

E. M. STANTON, Sec'y of War.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30.—The Enquirer has a despatch dated headquarters army of the Potomac, en route for Richmond via Hanover Ferry, 27th, 6 a. m., stating that the whole army is again in motion, Hancock in advance followed by Wright. Gen. Warren is joining us, having brought up the rear on our former right wing over the North Anna. Burnside will cross at County Ridge, and will bring up our rear. The army moves with a celerity never known before. We will make twenty miles before night. Sheridan is ahead, securing the country. Lee evidently thought we were going to turn his left, and give battle on the north side of South Anna; but he is outgeneraled, and by night we will be within four hours march of Richmond. Once getting Lee in his works, we can round his flank and get into his rear.

The whole country hereabouts is planted with corn, and the pasture is very fine.—We sweep all before us—horses, cattle, mules, contrabands, all fall into our trains.

Janesville Daily Gazette.

VOLUME 8. JANESVILLE, WIS., MONDAY, MAY 30, 1864. NUMBER 78.

Janesville Weekly Gazette.

TERMS PER YEAR, - - - - $2,00. IN ADVANCE.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is now the largest paper printed in the State, and having the matter published in the DAILY to select from, we challenge comparison with any newspaper in Wisconsin. In correct political doctrine, in reliable market reports, in giving the latest news from all quarters, in literary merit and in local information relating to this city and county, we shall spare no pains to make the WEEKLY GAZETTE worthy of public patronage and support.

THE NEWS.

The gratifying intelligence that the Army of the Potomac is within 15 miles of Richmond, is conveyed to us by the official bulletin of Mr. Stanton printed in another column. A perusal of our dispatches will convey an idea of the manner in which General Grant has successively outgeneraled Lee. No sooner is the rebel general safely within his entrenchments than the imperturbable hero of Vicksburg quietly slips his army past Lee and takes up a position a little nearer the point of destination than before, thus saving hundreds of lives until he can meet the enemy upon ground that will afford him something like an even chance. Fifteen miles is uncomfortably near, and the terror and excitement that must have seized upon those insolent rebels in Richmond, can be imagined better than described.

Breckinridge is reported to be at Hanover Court House with a certain number of troops estimated at from 30,000 to 100,000 men; which means, simply, that nobody knows anything at all about it. According to some maps Hanover town, where Grant is reported to have taken position, is directly east of Hanover C. H., and upon others it is laid down in a south easterly line; in either case, our forces are represented to be quite as near Richmond as either Breckenridge or Lee.

To an unsophisticated eye the position of our army now seems to be one of great peril, as the combined forces of Lee, Breckenridge and Beuregard must greatly out number those of Grant. We can only hope that to the military eye, our heroic Lieut. General is and must continue to be master of the situation.

Butler's troops are safely entrenched on a narrow neck of land lying between the James and the Appomatox rivers, when he is guarded by the gun boats. Doesticks tells how at one time he inserted his nose between the teeth of his antagonist and held the fellow safely to the floor. Butler is holding Beauregard in pretty much the same way.

The news from Sherman continues to be favorable.

Another of the pioneers in the anti-slavery movement has been stricken down by the remorseless hand of death. Hon. Joshua R. Giddings, died suddenly of heart disease, on Friday night. His age was 69.

STATE NEWS.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says: Mr. Bentley has sold out the furniture of the Walker House to H. A. Chase of Prairie du Chien, a brother-in-law to Mayor Kirby the owner of the building. Mr. Chase will keep the Walker hereafter.——A new passenger depot is being built at Prairie du Chien.——Crops are looking well in Richland County.——The Green Bay Advocate says: The Oconto company that left here on Wednesday, had a liberal share of printers in its ranks. We noticed Henry B. Ginty, one of the proprietors of the Pioneer, and J. W. Hall, editor and proprietor of the Lumberman, in the ranks, apparently very happy in being able to serve their country for a hundred days.——The La Crosse Democrat says: We saw a man this morning, who had over three hundred trout, which were taken from one of our valley streams by himself yesterday. We call this good sport, and good work. It also says, judging from the large emigration into Minnesota, the rush will be larger than last season by a considerable. We see daily, long streams of teams and prairie schooners loading on the ferries and await ing ferriage at this point.—— The last Oshkosh Northwestern says: "We are pained to learn of the sudden death of Judge Bryan, at his residence on Doty's Island, Menasha. We understand he was stricken by apoplexy near his house on Sunday last, and was found lying upon the ground insensible. He lingered till Tuesday. Judge Bryan was a gentleman of intelligence and high social and public position. He held several offices of importance under the general government, and has been for many years a prominent leader in the Democratic party of this State."——The Whitewater Register gives the following weight of fleeces taken from some blooded sheep owned by O. Cook. 1 Buck, 1 year old; 15 lbs; 4 two year old Ewes, respectively—7 lbs—8 lbs 8 oz.—10 lbs—9 lbs 7 oz.——The Prairie du Chien Union says those horse thieves, who passed through this county, —robbed the Bridgeport Post office etc., have returned through Grant Co., stolen several horses, went to Vernon county, and were there arrested and lodged in jail —except one, for whom a large reward is offered. He has already served two terms in the Penitentiary, and is running for a third term.—— The Waupun Times says Caroline Scharf, sentenced to four years imprisonment in the States Prison for larceny by the Milwaukee Circuit Court, was brought up a few days since. Caroline is an old offender, having been discharged from the Sing Sing prison only about three months. Adelbert T. Brockway, a boy of 17 years, was brought up by the Sheriff of St. Croix Co. one day last week, sentenced to six months imprisonment, Jeremiah Conkling, sentenced on the 16th of May, 1863, for five years for assault with intent to rape, by the Municipal Court of Milwaukee, was pardoned by Governor Lewis, on the 16th inst. His pardon was granted on the ground that there was always a grave doubt of his real guilt.—The Green Bay Advocate says the St. Paul, owned by Mr. Tremain, of Neenah, has paid this port a visit, and started for the western waters. She is a fine looking stern wheel boat, and we hope to see her here again. By-and-by, in the "fullness of time," we expect to announce a regular line of Green Bay and St. Paul steamers. Don't believe it? Well, wait and see.——The Milwaukee News says at a late hour on Thursday evening the night patrol of the Seventh Ward discovered an old woman of sixty years or more, lying on the door-step of a residence on Main Street, but thinly clad, and moaning and shivering from the chill night air. Upon interrogation she gave her name as Anna Miller, stating that she had sons and daughters now living in this city, who had abandoned her in her old age, leaving her to subsist as best she could upon the crumbs that dropped from other people's tables.

The Irish Brigade.

The following interesting sketch of the recent services, sufferings and gallantry of the Irish Brigade is derived from a correspondence of Lieut. R. P. King, 69th, Regt., N. Y. Vols,

BIVOUAC 69TH REGT. N. Y. V., IRISH BRIGADE. }
FOUR MILES SOUTH ON SPOTTSYLVANIA COURT HOUSE, May 27th, 1864. }

* * * * I shall not now detail our first marches from the crossing of the Rapidan to Chancellorsville, but commence with our battles in the "Wilderness"—no misnomer, I assure you. On the 3d of this month the Brigade first formed line of battle in front of a strongly entrenched and hidden enemy. Col. Smith, our acting Brigadier-General, rode along our front and addressed the boys. Almost while he was speaking, fire was opened upon us, and some was killed and wounded, poor old Mooney being the first man killed in our company. We advanced and fought till near midnight; and at early dawn, while we were erecting breastworks, the enemy opened a destructive fire on us from masked batteries in the woods, which soon took fire, and of course burned up the dead and wounded of the previous night —and also consumed our breastworks in many places. We were repeatedly "smoked out," and yet had to stand the fire of the enemy who in the afternoon made several splendid charges on us, but each time were hurled back. Fearful, indeed, were to us the then surrounding scenes. In front were swarms of Grey backs, who, with a terrible tenacity and gallantry, sought to break our lines, while all through the woods the flames swept away the undergrowth and licked the tall trees, which in being damaged and consumed assumed most fanciful shapes. Not an eye closed amongst us that night; but at morning we found the enemy had retreated, and we followed up. From then up to the 12th we had a constant succession of marching, fighting and entrenching—yet no such thing as sleep, nor for an hour were we wholly out of range of the enemy's fire. Indeed, from the 3d to the 13th was one prolonged battle; and when the grand struggle of the 12th came off our recruits were veterans. On that morning, after a most wearying march, we reached a clearing in front of the enemy's entrenchments—perhaps I ought to say fortifications, for those works were immensely strong and extended for miles. These we, who were of the first division, were ordered to take. Our men had to rush at them through a fire of grape and rifle-balls. Men dropped in scores, but the rest never faltered, and onour springing into the outside ditch, the rebels, after dreadful havoc, broke, and in swarms took to the woods in the rear. For some time we held their works; but on their being heavily reinforced they returned and drove us out. Again we drove them from the rifle-pits, but only after terrible slaughter, in which our Brigade got very much scattered, and I found myself with Blake and about a dozen of our company. It was then that Blake showed himself a soldier. We rallied some men belonging to several regiments, and Blake led them through a shower of balls to the opposite side of the works, intending to follow the enemy to the woods, and would have done so; but I persuaded him that it was certain death. He then took the regimental flag (which was the only color in that part of the line) and got upon the highest part of the work and stood there waving it and calling to us, "come on, boys, and I will show you how to fight." Giving up the flag to the Sergeant, he went in with any men he could find; and while a most infernal fire raged from both sides he fought conspicuously in the extreme front till he was struck in the knee. I immediately got some help and was in the act of carrying him off when he yelled out for me to save myself, that the Rebs were upon us. I looked around and found some but a few paces from us, and as their firing had wounded one of our carrying party, and struck me in the back, which, however, was luckily shielded by my coiled-up rubber blanket, I had, for the time, to leave Blake, as he ordered, to avoid being made prisoners. After that it was charge after charge by both parties to get possession of the entrenchments, and finally after several hours of hard fighting and immense slaughter, we succeeded in holding that part of the line. Then I went back to where I left the gallant Blake, and was told that the stretchers' men had been around and carried off some wounded men, so I am sure he is in some hospital, or, perhaps, already sent on towards Fredericksburg. If so, we may first hear of him in Washington or with you in New York. I miss him very much. We left camp at Stevensburg with 75 muskets; now I command 32.

Captain Foley and some other officers of the Brigade have just rejoined from Alexandria, where they had been doing duty. The Corcoran Legion have also came up. The boys are all quite well and eager for work, which, no doubt, they will soon have.

THE WASHINGTON correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette undertakes to show that Secretary Stanton is chiefly indebted to the enterprise of newspaper correspondents for the information which he dispatches to Gen. Dix and others, in the shape of "official bulletins." He not only cites chapter and verse to sustain his position, but he also shows wherein the Secretary was not so well posted as the newspaper men.

ISLAND TEN has been evacuated, the guns brought away and the negroes sent to Helena to work on plantations. The island is deemed of no importance as a military post, hence its abandonment.

Minnesota and Wisconsin Railroads.

The following remarks were made by Mr. Sloan in the House, in reply to some observations of Mr. Donnelly, of Minnesota:

"The gentleman from Minnesota has referred to the monopoly which Wisconsin at present enjoys of the carrying trade of Minnesota. It is true as he states it, but I can assure him and the House that Wisconsin does not desire to control or monopolize that great carrying trade at the expense of the interests of Minnesota. We fully appreciate the fact that this road, to aid in the construction of which it is proposed to give this grant of land, is of vital consequence to the State of Minnesota, and hence the members on the floor from Wisconsin favor it.

In answer to the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. Holman) I desire simply to say a word. If the gentleman seeks to make these lands lying in the northern portions of the States of Minnesto and Wisconsin of any value whatever to the Government, he must give us railroads for opening them up to settlement, for they will never be sold unless railroads are built. In all these land grants the alternate sections reserved by the Government, where the roads are built, are worth more to the government than all the lands would be without the roads. And it is the only means by which these lands will ever be settled. They will remain a waste for twenty, thirty or forty years, unless these roads are built.

In relation to the other point made by the gentleman from Indian, that these lands should be reserved for homesteads for actual settlers, I can tell the gentleman that any man who is familiar with that section of country, the northern part of Minnesota and Wisconsin, knows that settlers will not locate on these lands unless they have facilities for carrying their produce to market and bringing back the necessaries of life to the settlements. Any man in that section of country who is located more than twenty miles from the line of railroad has gone so far that it is utterly impossible for him to cultivate the soil, or engage in agricultural pursuits with any hope of profit to himself. It is a losing business for him; he cannot afford it. The only means by which that country can ever be settled will be by Congress exercising the wise policy of giving these grants of the public domain in alternate sections for the constrution of railroads. In that way a population will be brought to settle in that portion of the country. The country itself is desirable; the soil is fertile, susceptible of cultivation, and its settlement will add to our wealth and prosperity. It will add a hardy people to the population of this country.

In my judgment the views which have been expressed upon this floor in hostility to these land grants are based upon a narrow illiberal policy, and upon an ignorance of the true condition and want of that great section of our country.

The section of country in Wisconsin, through which the line of road passes for which a grant of land has been made, for a hundred miles contains no settlements whatever, but remains and unbroken wilderness stretching away to the shores of Lake Superior. By giving these alternate sections of lands you will introduce a population and settlement upon these lands, and by that means the Government will be able to sell the lands reserved by it.

I do not desire to occupy the attention of the committee, but it seems to me the arguments are strong and irrefutable in favor of grants of this kind. No gentleman, even though he may live upon the seaboard, who has given any attention to the condition of this country should refuse, in view of the great interests at stake, to give his vote in favor of the grants.

A WASHINGTON letter writer states that fully two-thirds of those who are reported as slightly wounded in the battles of the "Wilderness," are scarcely deserving to be considered as disabled, and that the fighting was nothing compared with that at Pea Ridge, Pittsburg Landing or Gettysburg.

INSURE WITH THE PHŒNIX INSURANCE COMPANY, HARTFORD.—Our mode of adjusting losses:—Feeling it a special duty I owe to the Phœnix Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., I take great pleasure in expressing my thankfulness for the promptness and liberality they have exhibited in honorably adjusting and paying my claim, for loss sustained by the total destruction of my brick store, building and stock of merchandise contained therein in Harrodsburg Ky., a few days since, and upon which I had an insurance in the PHŒNIX.

THE FIREMEN'S PARTY.—On Saturday we inadvertently omitted to make mention of the pleasant party at the Hyatt House, for the benefit of the fire department. The number present was not as large as we had expected to see, but those who had the management of the details of the party, had acquitted themselves so admirably that the occasion was one of uninterrupted enjoyment to all who attended. Both supper and music were excellent.

PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEW OF JANESVILLE.—Mr. J. F. Barks, of Richmond Ind., has succeeded in getting a handsome photographic view of this city taken, from the High School Building. It is of course true to life, and those who wish such a picture will do well to subscribe at once, it being sold only on subscription. An agent will call upon our citizens to solicit their names, or those who choose to do so will have an opportunity of subscribing at the art gallery of Mr. Clark on Milwaukee street. may30d1t-606.

KNABE'S PIANOS.—Mr. Wilson—Dear Sir:—The piano forte you furnished for the Varian-Hoffman concerts in this city, I pronounce to be the finest instrument I have had the pleasure of performing on during a long tour. Having seen and examined the pianos of Knabe's manufacture before, I merely state what I sincerely believe, and in unison with other pianists who have the same opportunity of judging as myself, that they are the best in use.

Truly yours, E. HOFFMAN.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH.—A call is made in the Register of this week for a meeting of the wardens and vestry, and all others who may feel an interest in the welfare of the society of St. Luke's Church, to meet in the vestry of the church on to-morrow evening, at half past seven o'clock, for the purpose of taking into consideration the policy of securing the services of a minister. Rev. H. W. Spaulding, formerly of Janesville, well and favorably known in this community, has signified his willingness to come here, provided the amount of his salary can be raised. The Church has stood idle for many months, a continual reproach to the Society, and this community generally, and we hope they may be successful in their efforts and again open its doors.—Whitewater Register.

WISCONSIN STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTON.—The fifth annual convention of the Wisconsin State Sunday School Union, will be held in the Congregational Church, Janesville, June 14th, 15th, and 16th, 1864, commencing at 3 o'clock Tuesday, and closing Thursday evening.

Every pastor, superintendent, and teacher in the State, is affectionately invited to be present, and it is most earnestly hoped, that in no event, will any school fail to be represented, at least by one delegate.

It is believed that this will be the largest and best Sunday School Convention that has ever been held in Wisconsin. Ralph Wells, of New York city, Rev. J. H. Vincent, of Rockford, Ill., E. D. Jones, of St. Louis, and numerous other well known friends of the cause, are expected to attend, while the fact that the Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Minnesota conventions are to be held on the 28 and 31st of May, and 7th and 31st of June, respectively, thus forming with our own, a chain of North-Western Sunday School Conventions, will doubtless lead many Eastern men to avail themselves of the opportunity of being present.

Arrangements have been made with the various railroad companies, by which delegates paying full fare going to the convention, will be entitled to a free pass from the State Secretary on their return. It is expected, also, that a similar arrangement will be made with the boats running on Lake Michigan. The Northwestern Packet company will carry delegateds in companies of twenty or more, at two-thirds the usual rate. To avoid question as to return passes, delegates are requested to obtain credentiatls, signed by the pastor or superintendent.

The citizens of Janesville are hospitably arranging to provide free entertainment for members of the convention, and such as intend to be present are requested to notify the chairman of the reception committee, Willard Merrill, at as early a day as possible.

WALTER S. CARTER,
State Secretary.

MILWAUKEE, April 25th, 1864.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Maj. Gen. Dix: —An official dispatch from the headquarters of the army of the Potomac at Magahyck Church, 10 miles from Hanover town, dated yesterday at 5 P.M., has just been received. It states that our army was withdrawn to the north side of the North Anna Thursday night, and moved towards Hanover town.

The place designated for crossing the Pamunky at 9 o'clock yesterday, Friday, morning, Sheridan with the 1st and 2d Divisions of cavalry took possession of Hanover Ferry and Hanover town, finding there only a rebel vidette. The 1st Division of the 6th corps arrived at 10 A. M., and now hold the place with sufficient force of cavalry, infantry and artillery to resist any attack likely to be made upon him. The remainder of the corps are pressing forward with rapidity.

A later dispatch dated 7 o'clock this morning, 28th, from Headquarters at Magchych Church, has also been received. It reports that everything goes on finely. Weather clear and cool. The troops came up rapidly and in great spirits, and the army will be beyond the Pamunky by noon.

Breckinridge is at Hanover Court House with a force variously reported from 30,000 to 100,000. Wickham's and Logan's brigade of cavalry are also there. The dispatch further states that after seizing Hanover Ferry yesterday, Gen. Tarbert captured 75 cavalry including six officers, that the rebel cavalry is exceedingly demoralized and flies before ours on every occasion.

A dispatch from Gen. Sherman May 26, 6 A. M., near Dallas, reports that the enemy discovering his move to turn Altoona, marched to meet our forces at Dallas. Our columns met the enemy about a mile east of the Pumpkin-vine Creek, and we pushed them back about 3 miles to the point where the roads fork to Atlanta and Marietta. Here Johnston has chosen a strong line, and made hasty but strong parapets of timber and earthworks. Gen. Sherman's right is at Dallas. The centre about three miles north. The country is densely wooded, broken and no roads of any consequence. We have had many sharp encounters, but nothing decisive.—no dispatches from any fields of operations have been received to-day.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The Times special says Grant's reconnoisance on Wednesday, showed the rebels in full force and holding a powerful position in our immediate front somewhat in advance of Little River. The ground was also very favorable to him, and he had occupied every hour in fortifying. If driven back from here even, he had the elaborately prepared line of the South Anna to fall back upon. Grant therefore determined to re-cross the North Anna, swing around to the left over the Pamunky, and leave Lee to enjoy his position. A cavalry demonstration made to divert the attention of the enemy, while Grant's movement took place, proved entirely successful. When it was accomplished the rebels were completely taken by surprise.

The Herald's correspondent says a wounded rebel officer says their loss in the late battles reached 30,000.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Times' special says Ledlies' brigade, composed of the 10th regulars, 35th, 57th and 59th Mass., and 4th regulars, met with a repulse on crossing the North Anna. They had crossed on a run and were driving in the rebel skirmishers when a charge was made instantly from a concealed battery, and the rebels opened a terrible fire of grape and cannister. The brigade fell back to cover in a piece of woods, when in the height of a thunder storm the rebels charged and drove our men towards the river just as another brigade came up and checked the advance of the enemy.

160 of the brigade were killed, wounded and missing.

The World's special says that there was considerable skirmishing on Friday, but no heavy fighting near Hanover Court House.

Grant's movements are progressing well and rapidly. Most of the casualties are among New England troops.

FROM MADISON.

To Gov Lewis, Madison:

WASHINGTON, May 30.—We have advices from the army of the Potomac down to 7 o'clock this morning. On Thursday night Gen. Grant commenced a movement to turn the enemy's position between the North and South Anna, by passing rapidly down the north side of the Pamunky, and crossing at Hanover Town. This was in course of successful accomplishment, and it was believed the whole army would be across by noon to-day, at Hanover Town and Ferry, which brings our army within 15 miles of Richmond.

E. M. STANTON, Sec'y of War.

FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Steamer City of Baltimore, from Liverpool 18th and Queenstown 19th, arrived this morning. Brilliant forcing weather for crops.

The German-Danish conference held 3 hours on the 17th. All members present. The Daily News says they can hardly be said to have advanced a single step, and the prospect of agreement is as distant as ever. No common basis discussion agreed upon. Germans repudiate altogether the treaty engagements. Conference adjourned till the 28th of May, when more than half the time fixed for truce with have expired. The Daily News telegram says France advocates prolonged suppression of hostilities if necessary. Danish advices continue to charge the Germans with plundering and confiscation after the armistic was declared.

The La France denies the rumors of the probable Ministerial change in France.

The protracted trial of La Pomnevais for poisoning resulted in a verdict of guilty and he was sentenced to death.

Havana papers mention the capture of Monte Cristo by the Spanish in St. Domingo.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

WASHINGTON, May 30, 9 A. M.—Gen. Dix: No official despatches from the army of the Potomac since my last telegram Saturday evening.

A telegram from Sherman, near Dallas, May 29th, reports that an engagement occurred on Saturday between the enemy and McPhersons corps. The rebels were driven back with a loss of 250 killed, and wounded left in our hands, and about 300 prisoners. Our loss not over 300.

E. M. STANTON, Sec'y of War.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30.—The Enquirer has a despatch dated headquarters army of the Potomac, en route for Richmond via Hanover Ferry, 27th, 6 a. m., stating that the whole army is again in motion, Hancock in advance followed by Wright. Gen. Warren is joining us, having brought up the rear on our former right wing over the North Anna. Burnside will cross at County Ridge, and will bring up our rear. The army moves with a celerity never known before. We will make twenty miles before night. Sheridan is ahead, scouring the country. Lee evidently thought we were going to turn his left, and give battle on the north side of South Anna; but he is outgeneraled, and by night we will be within four hours march of Richmond. Once getting Lee in his works, we can round his flank and get into his rear.

The whole country hereabouts is planted with corn, and the pasture is very fine.—We sweep all before us—horses, cattle, mules, contrabands, all fall into our trains.

E. L. DIMOCK has received another installment of war maps for customers.

MONDAY, MAY 30, 1864.

Extracts from a Letter from the Fifth Wisconsin.

BIVOUAC (SOMEWHERE BETWEEN SPOTTSYLVANIA AND RICHMOND, May 16th 1864.

I had an opportunity a couple of days ago, to send a very short note home, without any particulars of the battles, and now as we are lying in the field for a short time, I will write a partial description of the big fight and send it when I get a chance.

The army of the Potomac has had eight days of the hardest fighting ever experienced by any portion of the U. S. army.

We left the old camp and crossed the Rapidan River on the 4th. The 5th Wis. 500 strong; the Brigade numbering over 19,000. We marched 16 miles that day bivouaced near the river. Next day (the 5th) we commenced skirmishing with the rebs at 10 A. M., and at noon the whole line became engaged. This was the first day's fight and our regiment lost over one hundred in killed and wounded. Picket firing was kept up all night, and in the morning both armies held the same positions as on the day previous.

On the morning of the 6th the ball opened early and by the sun an hour high the whole line was engaged. We had at this time in action, two Corps, viz: the 5th and 6th, and the rebels two Corps, Ewell's and Longstreet's. Towards sunset the rebels made a charge and turned our right flank. One brigade broke and retreated in disorder. We finally drove them back and regained the lost ground. In the night the 5th Corps moved to the left flank and turned the rebel's right, followed up by the 5th Corps this morning. This caused Lee to shift his position.

May 7. Burnside's Corps became engaged on the left, and Lee was reinforced by Hill's Corps.

We kept driving them steadily from every position, and yet they had the largest force, for each of this Corps contained 4 divisions, and ours only 3.

May 8. We manœuvered on the rebel righ till towards noon, when a hard battle ensued at a point between Chancellorsville and Spottsylvania Court House. Hancock marched to our relief with the 2nd Corps and we gave the "Gray Backs" a divil of a bating. Up to this time the 5th Wis. has lost 150. As I surmised in my letter, our communications are principally cut off from Washington, and all transportation stopped.

Thus far, Gen. Grant has manœuvered the army with skill, as we anticipated, but has conducted the campaign on a very differed plan from any before with the Potomac army. We took along 15 days rations including forage and ammunition for that length of time. The train was loaded.

May 9th.—Fighting resumed as usual. One Corps shifts position again to the left, hugging the Fredricksburg & Richmond Pike as near the railroad as possible.

Gen. Sedgwick is mortally wounded today, and died shortly afterwards.

Lee congratulates his troops on having bagged the Yankee army: says Lee, "we have cut off all the enemy's communications and he has but two days rations with him. (Prisoners that we took told us what Lee said in his speech.) At sunset there is considerable charging, and counter-charging.

May 10th.—Morning dawns with the rattle of musketry. We are crowding Robert E. rather close; at 5 P. M. there is heavy cannonading, preparing for a desperate charge. Our brigade in front, supported by the Jerseys. In this charge we captured four or five rebel regiments and several stand of colors. The 5th Wisconsin lost in the charge 90, making up to this time 240. We captured two lines of rifle pits, but lost them again.

May 11th.—Sheridan's cavalry cuts the railroad and opens our line of communications. Heavy cannonading and hard fighting all day.

May 12th.—The fortunes of war often change. In the morning Hancock made a grand charge, and carried the rebel works, capturing a large lot of prisoners and cannon, everything now is favorable. Lee tells his troops that unless he can succeed in breaking our line, he is gone up!

2 P. M. The battle rages fearfully, we have turned their right flank, Lee sends in a flag of truce, and asks a cessation of hostilities until he can bury his dead. Grant sends back word that he will bury his dead for him, and fight him as long as he has a man or a cartridge left. At night the rebs keep up a heavy fire while they evacuate their whole line of earthworks and retreat, leaving only a rear guard to keep up appearances.

The battle is over, we have whipped Lee's army in the big fight, this proves that the army of the Potomac can fight, and the previous disasters were attributable to persons above the rank and file of the army.

Of course we expect to fight them again before we get Richmond, but we can't have another as hard fight. The 5th Wisconsin has lost in killed, wounded and missing, about 270, or thereabouts. Our Brigade which numbered 1900, now numbers 700, losing more than any other brigade in the army. We captured about 12,000 prisoners, (that is our 3d corps captured them.) We have yet no means of knowing what the rebel losses are.

The 13th was occupied in issuing rations and ammunition, collecting fragments of broken regiments, concentrating troops, burying the dead, taking care of the wounded, and the cavalry following Lee.

May 14th.—It having rained the 13th, it was very muddy and difficult moving artillery. However, we followed up the Johny Rebs and kept harrassing their rear guard. In the afternoon the 7th corps halted on the handsomest plantation I ever saw in Virginia. At sunset we all charged through a creek waist deep, but Mr. Secesh skeedaddled without firing a gun.

Yesterday, (15th) we advanced the skirmish line and took up a commanding position, and then bivouacked for the night.

To-day (Monday the 16th) we are lying comparatively still in order to get rations, ammunition and forage, which has to be hauled from Belle Plaine by wagon road, but we hope soon to have the railroad repaired and the bridge completed over the Rappahannock at Fredericksburg.

At one time during the great battle, some of Burnside's colored troops were called upon to assist in a charge on the enemy's rifle pits, and they went in for revenge, yelling "Fort Pillow" in the faces of the rebels, slaughtering every one they came to. "We'll mash 'em," say the darkies; "Go in!" say we; "Bully for the nigs; tit for tat."

You can never form any idea of a battle by newspaper reports, in fact nothing short of an ocular demonstration can suffice.

These battles were fought in the woods, what is called in Virginia the Wilderness.

I would like to explain to you, if I could the peculiarities of the last day's fight, just to show the spirit of the contest, and how savagely and ferociously they fought for the possession of a rifle pit.

What I tell you is true, for I saw it all and measured the ground after the battle. It was something like a double ditch fence and our men advanced so close that the breastwork answered for both parties. Our men in the ditch one side and the rebs in the ditch the other side, with not over four or five feet of dirt between them; and thus they fought over the bank for a long time, sometimes our men would jump on to the breastwork and get a raking fire lengthways of the pit among the rebs, and often in their desperation they would bayonet each other over the bank. One of our men jumped on to the dirt and fired his gun down into the rebs, throwed his gun back and took a comrade's gun and fired it, and so kept on firing guns as fast as they were handed to him, till he fired six or eight, when he was killed by a rebel in the pit.

Dead bodies were thicker along these rifle pits than I ever saw them before either at Antietam or Gettysburg. I saw at one place dead rebels lying just as they fell two or three layers deep, in their own blood, six inches deep. A slight wound will prove fatal to some, while others will live with a horrible wound. A drummer by the name of Wait was shot over the left eye, the ball remaining inside of his head. The doctors said it was a mortal wound, but he still lives.

The Drum Major was shot through both hips. Capt. White lost his right arm; Capt. Bissell lost his left arm; Major Totten lost his hand; Lieut Stout lost his life: Lieut. Miller was killed; Lieut Gibson wounded; and Lieut. Mills of my Co. mortally wounded: the color-sergeant was killed: and the new flag had ten bullet holes put through it.

We don't know where Robert E. will make another stand, but we think somewhere in the vicinity of Hanover Junction. If we succeed in driving him into his fortifications around Richmond, we will probably siege him. We haven't seen a newspaper in two weeks, nor a letter from the North, don't know what you think of our movements. A. CLARK.

Letter From the Fifth Regiment.

The following letter from W. C. Stevens, of Company E, 5th Regiment, will be read with interest, though not designed for the public eye.

CAMP AT THE FRONT, IN A RIFLE-PIT, Virginia, May 17th, 1864.

DEAR FATHER AND MOTHER:—I am well, poor as a snake, rather on the decline, and so is the whole army. It is very near a draw game between Grant and Lee, so far. Grant may have a point or two ahead of Lee, but not more than that. When our brigade of four regiments left camp this spring, there was between 1,900 and 2,000 men in it, now it numbers 702 men. That is losing some men. I will give you a list of killed and wounded in Company E:—Lieutenant Mills, mortally wounded, now dead; Sergeant McDaniel slightly wounded: Sergeant Walker killed; Sergeant Huggins wounded; Sergeant Herrington wounded; Corporal Ames wounded; Corporal Wiggins shot in the leg, broke it, has been amputated most up to the hip. I think he will live. Corporal Packard slight wound, present; Platte Raymond killed; John Morgan killed; John Lehn killed while working a cannon; Corporal Newkirk wounded; Small wounded: Hastings wounded; Story wounded: Cummings wounded or killed, missing; C. C. Ames slight wound, present; Grover leg broke, amputated above the knee; Pierson badly wounded, I guess a prisoner; Anderson wounded; Baker wounded, I think mortally: C. Valentine wounded; Tibbols wounded; Coonen wounded; Curran wounded: Anson slight wound, present; Lincoln wounded: Magden wounded.

I have marked "present" by the names of those that are here, the others have all been sent away to the hospital. There are 27 men here fit for duty. Our Regiment left camp this spring with 185 men. It is 160 strong now.

Please don't worry about me at all, for I am all right. Some parts of this army has been fighting every day since the 4th and some of the time the whole army has been engaged. There is but one field officer in our brigade now. You must all keep your shirts on. If Grant holds the trumps he may win; but Lee plays his hand well. W. C. STEVENS.

It is at all times important to insure with Old Companies. Now it is especially so, we know not what a day may bring forth in the financial world. Keep in the old paths. E. L. DIMOCK, Agent.

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.

It is not a DYE, but restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a luxuriant beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time; being the original Hair coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of the commercial agents, D. S. BARNES & Co., 202 Broadway, New York. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. augldawcowly

WYNKOOP'S ICELAND PECTORAL.

Diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Pulmonary Organs are ever prevalent, insidious and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure, and uproot these complaints, must be expectorant, anodyne and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever mastered this class of diseases like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is used with the most astonishing results in all cases of Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Diptheria or Putrid Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, Coughs, Colds, Nervous Irritability, &c.

The Rev. J. J. POTTER certifies—"that I have used Dr. Wynkoop's Pectoral for several years, myself and in my family, for severe pulmonary complaints, and have recommended it to many others, and have never seen its equal." Rev. J. J. POTTER, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Hundreds and thousands of important testimonials could be produced, showing its remarkable cures and that it never fails.

It is composed of pure Iceland Moss, Balm of Gilead, Peruvian Balsam, Elecampane, Comfrey, Burdock, and other invaluable expectorant and tonic ingredients. It is harmless, prompt and lasting. Invalids and sufferers cannot afford to neglect a trial. Every family should have it. It is remarkable for Croup. Full descriptions, recommendations and directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all the principal Druggists.

ROCK CO., WISCONSIN, LANDS FOR SALE BY AUCTION.

Will be sold by auction, on

Thursday the 23d of June Next,

in the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, thirty-eight hundred and forty (3840) acres of the finest agricultural lands in the State. They are situated about ten miles from Janesville, and adjoining the village of Footville, with the Beloit & Madison Railroad running through them, and the Milwaukee & Southern Wisconsin Railroad on their border, and are composed of about an equal quantity of heavy "grove" timber and prairie. They were selected for their present owner for investment, nearly thirty years ago, as the best lands, in all respects, in Rock county, and this county, it is well known, is the garden of Wisconsin.

They will be sold in farm parcels, and the purchase money, less twenty or twenty-five per cent, which must be paid in cash, may remain on mortgage at seven per cent. interest, for seven or ten years, excepting timber lots which will be sold for cash.

There will also be sold at the same time and place, and in the same manner, but wholly for cash, twenty two hundred (2,200) acres of prime lands in Marathon county, near the town of Wausau, selected about eight years ago.

A more eligible opportunity for farmers to secure most desirable farms, or for the investment of capital, could not be offered.

For further particulars apply personally, or by letter to Mr. Dawson, No. 9 East 15th street, New York, who will be in Janesville ten days before the sale takes place; to J. J. R. Pease, Esq., counsellor at law, Janesville, or to Mr. John Howe, on the property, at Footville. 488*my7dawôw.

GOTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (dirty staline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

Janesville Daily Gazette.

MONDAY, MAY 30, 1864.

Extracts from a Letter from the Fifth Wisconsin.

HEADQUARTERS (SOMEWHERE BETWEEN SPOTTSYLVANIA AND RICHMOND, May 16th 1864.

I had an opportunity a couple of days ago to send a very short note home, without any particulars of the battles, and now as we are lying in the field for a short time, I will write a partial description of the big fight and send it when I get a chance.

The army of the Potomac has had eight days of the hardest fighting ever experienced by any portion of the U. S. army.

We left the old camp and crossed the Rapidan River on the 4th. The 5th Wis. 500 strong; the Brigade numbering over 10,000. We marched 10 miles that day bivouacked near the river. Next day (the 5th) we commenced skirmishing with the rebs at 10 A. M., and at noon the whole line became engaged. This was the first day's fight and our regiment lost over one hundred in killed and wounded. Picket firing was kept up all night, and in the morning both armies held the same positions as on the day previous.

On the morning of the 6th the ball opened early, and by the sun an hour high the whole line was engaged. We had at this time in action, two Corps, viz: the 5th and 6th, and the rebels two Corps, Ewell's and Longstreet's. Towards sunset the rebels made a charge and turned our right flank. One brigade broke and retreated in disorder. We finally drove them back, and regained the lost ground. In the night the 5th Corps moved to the left flank and turned the rebel's right, followed up by the 5th Corps this morning. This caused Lee to shift his position.

May 7. Burnside's Corps became engaged on the left, and Lee was reinforced by Hill's Corps.

We kept driving them steadily from every position, and yet they had the largest force, for each of this Corps contained 4 divisions, and ours only 3.

May 8. We maneuvered on the rebel right till towards noon, when a hard battle ensued at a point between Chancellorsville and Spottsylvania Court House. Hancock marched to our relief with the 2nd Corps and we gave the "Gray Backs" a divil of a bating. Up to this time the 5th Wis. has lost 150. As I surmised in my letter, our communications are principally cut off from Washington, and all transportation stopped.

Thus far, Gen. Grant has maneuvered the army with skill, as we anticipated, but has conducted the campaign on a very differed plan from any before with the Potomac army. We took along 15 days rations including forage and amunition for that length of time. The train was loaded.

May 9th.—Fighting resumed as usual. One Corps shifts position again to the left, hugging the Fredricksburg & Richmond Pike as near the railroad as possible.

Gen. Sedgwick is mortally wounded today, and died shortly afterwards.

Lee congratulates his troops on having bagged the Yankee army; says Lee, "we have cut off all the enemy's communications and he has but two days rations with him. (Prisoners that we took told us what Lee said in his speech.)—At sunset there is considerable charging, and counter-charging.

May 10th.—Morning dawns with the rattle of musketry. We are crowding Robert E. rather close; at 5 P. M. there is heavy cannonading, preparing for a desperate charge. Our brigade in front, supported by the Jerseys. In this charge we captured four or five rebel regiments and several stand of colors. The 5th Wisconsin lost in the charge 90, making up to this time 240. We captured two lines of rifle pits, but lost them again.

May 11th.—Sheridan's cavalry cuts the railroad and opens our line of communications. Heavy cannonading and hard fighting all day.

May 12th.—The fortunes of war often change. In the morning Hancock made a grand charge, and carried the rebel works, capturing a large lot of prisoners and cannon, everything now is favorable. Lee tells his troops that unless he can succeed in breaking our line, he is gone up!

2 P. M. The battle rages fearfully, we have turned their right flank, Lee sends in a flag of truce, and asks a cessation of hostilities until he can bury his dead. Grant sends back word that he will bury his dead for him, and fight him as long as he has a man or a catridge left. At night the rebs keep up a heavy fire while they evacuate their whole line of earthworks and retreat, leaving only a rear guard to keep up appearances.

The battle is over, we have whipped Lee's army in the big fight, this proves that the army of the Potomac can fight, and the previous disasters were attributable to persons above the rank and file of the army.

Of course we expect to fight them again before we get Richmond, but we can't have another as hard fight. The 5th Wisconsin has lost in killed, wounded and missing, about 270, or thereabouts. Our Brigade which numbered 1900, now numbers 700, losing more than any other brigade in the army. We captured about 12,000 prisoners, (that is our 3d corps captured them.) We have yet no means of knowing what the rebel losses are.

The 13th was occupied in issuing rations and ammunition, collecting fragments of broken regiments, concentrating troops, burying the dead, taking care of the wounded, and the cavalry following Lee.

May 14th.—It having rained the 13th, it was very muddy and difficult moving artillery. However, we followed up the Jouny Rebs and kept harrassing their rear guard. In the afternoon the 7th corps halted on the handsomest plantation I ever saw in Virginia. At sunset we all charged through a creek waist deep, but Mr. Scotch skeedaddled without firing a gun.

Yesterday, (15th) we advanced the skirmish line and took up a commanding position, and then bivouacked for the night.

To-day (Monday the 16th) we are lying comparatively still in order to get rations, ammunition and forage, which has to be hauled from Belle Plaine by wagon road, but we hope soon to have the railroad repaired and the bridge completed over the Rappahannock at Fredericksburg.

At one time during the great battle, some of Burnside's colored troops were called upon to assist in a charge on the enemy's rifle pits, and they went in for revenge, yelling "Fort Pillow" in the faces of the rebels, slaughtering every one they came to. "We'll mash 'em," say the darkies; "Go in" say we; "Bully for the nigs; tit for tat."

You can never form any idea of a battle by newspaper reports, in fact nothing short of an ocular demonstration can suffice.

These battles were fought in the woods, what is called in Virginia the Wilderness.

I would like to explain to you, if I could the peculiarities of the last day's fight, just to show the spirit of the contest, and how savagely and ferociously they fought for the possession of a rifle pit.

What I tell you is true, for I saw it all and measured the ground after the battle. It was something like a double ditch fence and our men advanced so close that the breastwork answered for both parties. Our men in the ditch one side and the rebs in the ditch the other side, with not over four or five feet of dirt between them; and thus they fought over the bank for a long time, sometimes our men would jump on to the breastwork and get a raking fire lengthways of the pit among the rebs, and often in their desperation they would bayonet each other over the bank. One of our men jumped on to the dirt and fired his gun down into the rebs, throwed his gun back and took a comrade's gun and fired it, and so kept on firing guns as fast as they were handed to him, till he fired six or eight, when he was killed by a rebel in the pit.

Dead bodies were thicker along these rifle pits than I ever saw them before either at Antietam or Gettysburg. I saw at one place dead rebels lying just as they fell two or three layers deep, in their own blood, six inches deep. A slight wound will prove fatal to some, while others will live with a horrible wound. A drummer by the name of Wait was shot over the left eye, the ball remaining inside of his head. The doctors said it was a mortal wound, but he still lives.

The Drum Major was shot through both hips. Capt. White lost his right arm; Capt. Bissell lost his left arm; Major Totten lost his hand; Lieut Stout lost his life; Lieut. Miller was killed; Lieut Gibson wounded; and Lieut. Mills of my Co. mortally wounded; the color sergeant was killed; and the new flag had ten bullet holes put through it.

We don't know where Robert E. will make another stand, but we think somewhere in the vicinity of Hanover Junction. If we succeed in driving him into his fortifications around Richmond, we will probably siege him. We havn't seen a newspaper in two weeks, nor a letter from the North, don't know what you think of our movements. A. CLARK.

Letter From the Fifth Regiment.

The following letter from W. C. Stevens, of Company E, 5th Regiment, will be read with interest, though not designed for the public eye:

CAMP AT THE FRONT, IN A RIFLE-PIT, Virginia, May 17th, 1864.

DEAR FATHER AND MOTHER:—I am well, poor as a snake, rather on the decline, and so is the whole army. It is very near a draw game between Grant and Lee, so far. Grant may have a point or two ahead of Lee, but not more than that. When our brigade of four regiments left camp this spring, there was between 1,900 and 2,000 men in it, now it numbers 702 men. That is losing some men. I will give you a list of killed and wounded in Company E:—Lieutenant Mills, mortally wounded, now dead; Sergeant McDaniel slightly wounded; Sergeant Walker killed; Sergeant Huggins wounded; Sergeant Herrington wounded; Corporal Ames wounded; Corporal Wiggins shot in the leg, broke it, has been amputated most up to the hip. I think he will live. Corporal Packard slight wound, present; Platte Raymond killed; John Morgan killed; John Lehn killed while working a cannon; Corporal Newkirk wounded; Small wounded; Hastings wounded; Story wounded; Cummins wounded or killed, missing; C. C. Ames slight wound, present; Grover leg broke, amputated above the knee; Pierson badly wounded, I guess a prisoner; Anderson wounded; Baker wounded, I think mortally; C. Valentine wounded; Tibbols wounded; Coonen wounded; Curran wounded; Anson slight wound, present; Lincoln wounded; Magden wounded.

I have marked "present" by the names of those that are here, the others have all been sent away to the hospital. There are 27 men here fit for duty. Our Regiment left camp this spring with 485 men. It is 160 strong now.

Please don't worry about me at all, for I am all right. Some parts of this army has been fighting every day since the 4th and some of the time the whole army has been engaged. There is but one field officer in our brigade now. You must all keep your shirts on. If Grant holds the trumps he may win; but Lee plays his hand well. W. C. STEVENS.

It is at all times important to insure with Old Companies. Now it is especially so, we know not what a day may bring forth in the financial world. Keep in the old paths. E. L. DIMOCK, Agent.

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.

It is not a DYE, but restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a luxuriant beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original Hair coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of the commercial agents, D. S. BARNES & Co., 202 Broadway, New York. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. aug1dawcowly

WYNKOOP'S ICELAND PECTORAL.

Diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Pulmonary Organs are ever prevalent, insidious and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure, and uproot those complaints, must be expectorant, anodyne and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever mastered this class of diseases like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is used with the most astonishing results in all cases of Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria or Putrid Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, Coughs, Colds, Nervous Irritability, &c.

The Rev. J. J. POTTER certifies—"that I have used Dr. Wynkoop's Pectoral for several years, myself and in my family, for severe pulmonary complaints, and have recommended it to many others, and have never seen its equal." Rev. J. J. POTTER, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Hundreds and thousands of important testimonials could be produced, showing its remarkable cures and that it never fails.

It is composed of pure Iceland Moss, Balm of Gilead, Peruvian Balsam, Elecampane, Comfrey, Burdock, and other invaluable expectorant and tonic ingredients. It is harmless, prompt and lasting. Invalids and sufferers cannot afford to neglect a trial. Every family should have it. It is remarkable for Croup. Full descriptions, recommendations and directions accompany each bottle.

ROCK CO., WISCONSIN, LANDS FOR SALE BY AUCTION.

Will be sold by auction, on

Thursday the 23d of June Next,

in the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, thirty-eight hundred and forty (3840) acres of the finest agricultural lands in the State. They are situated about ten miles from Janesville, and adjoining the village of Footville, with the Beloit & Madison Railroad running through them, and the Milwaukee & Southern Wisconsin Railroad on their border, and are composed of about an equal quantity of heavy "grove" timber and prairie. They were selected for their present owner for investment, nearly thirty years ago, as the best lands, in all respects, in Rock county, and this county, it is well known, is the garden of Wisconsin.

They will be sold in farm parcels, and the purchase money, less twenty or twenty-five per cent., which must be paid in cash, may remain on mortgage at seven per cent. interest, for seven or ten years, excepting timber lots which will be sold for cash.

There will also be sold at the same time and place, and in the same manner, but wholly for cash, twenty two hundred (2,200) acres of prime lands in Marathon county, near the town of Wausau, selected about eight years ago.

A more eligible opportunity for farmers to secure most desirable farms, or for the investment of capital, could not be offered.

For further particulars apply personally, or by letter to Mr. Dawson, No. 9 East 15th street, New York, who will be in Janesville ten days before the sale takes place; to J. T. Peake, Esq., counsellor at law, Janesville, or to Mr. John Howe, on the property, at Footville. 488may7daw6w

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE!

The undersigned are having made at Beloit, Wis., one hundred of those Reapers known as the Cheap, or Webber Reaper!

Nothwithstanding the increase of nearly double in price over other years of all materials put in Reapers, we are going to sell for 1864 at about the same prices as before. Our prices at the shop are $110 cash for single Reaper, for Reaper and Mower $140. We are making Fifty Mowers, which will be warranted to do good work. They will be made of steel bars of the Buckeye pattern, except the hinges.

Those buying Reapers alone can have Mowers the next year or thereafter for the same price, as the difference between reaper and mower.

We do not deem it necessary to extol our Reaper, for it is already known to be the only two-horse Reaper in use. Notwithstanding a great many are used with two horses, they ought to use three or four, and some of them six, to be as easy to the horse as ours are to two ordinary horses.

Please send in your orders early to be sure of a machine, as positively only one hundred of them will be built, and we will warrant each and every machine to

Work Well in all Kinds of Grain!

The Reels will be different from last year. They will be the over hanging reel, and have six bats instead of four keeping the reel, holding the grain to the sickle steady.

They will be shipped to any depot in Wisconsin or Illinois. Ten per cent. will be added if sold on time. One half the 1st of September, 1864, the balance the 1st of September, 1865.

Those buying machines will confer a favor by giving this machine publicity in their respective neighborhoods. When material gets to its usual stage we intend to make it a ninety dollar machine, and should have done it but for the unprecedented high prices of everything to construct machines with.

will attend strictly to the repairing of the Webber Reaper. None others wanted. We are prepared to change from chain to belt, put on castor wheels upon short notice. Men will be on hand to repair promptly. Charges light as the cost of material will admit. We shall manufacture none at that place, consequently we will be prepared to repair. Work solicited. STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors of this justly esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem it necessary, in order to give their goods a fictitious, or even an enhanced value, to take a fling at all other Bitters, and proclaim in small capitals that they are worthless. Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their merits, and invite your careful attention to the goods we allow our brand upon, knowing as we do so, that our reputation is at stake. The name, "Red Jacket," is taken from the original compound by the native child of the forest, and with the addition of a few herbs by Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the taste, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient rising from the bed of sickness, loss of appetite, distress after eating, dizziness, and all diseases arising from Torpid Liver or Indigestion.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence.
They are a sure preventive of Fever and Ague
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache
They are perfectly pure and palatable.
They make the debilitated strong, and restore to strength the exhausted

Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Good News for the Unfortunate!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

☞ It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

☞ It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

☞ Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

☞ Price, Cherokee Injection, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

COTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.
Signed, L. M. GOTTSCHALK.

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE!

The undersigned are having made at Beloit, Wis., one hundred of those Reapers known as the Cheap, or Webber Reaper!

Notwithstanding the increase of nearly double in price over other years of all materials put in Reapers, we are going to sell for 1864 at about the same prices as before. Our prices at the shop are $110 cash for single Reaper, for Reaper and Mower $140. We are making Fifty Mowers, which will be warranted to do good work. They will be made of steel bars of the Buckeye pattern, except the hinges.

Those buying Reapers alone can have Mowers the next year or thereafter for the same price, as the difference between reaper and mower.

We do not deem it necessary to extol our Reaper, for it is already known to be the only two-horse Reaper in use. Notwithstanding a great many are used with two horses, they ought to use three or four, and some of them six, to be as easy to the horse as ours are to two ordinary horses.

Please send in your orders early to be sure of a machine, as positively only one hundred of them will be built, and we will warrant each and every machine to

Work Well in all Kinds of Grain!

The Reels will be different from last year. They will be the over hanging reel, and have six bats instead of four keeping the reel, holding the grain to the sickle steady.

They will be shipped to any depot in Wisconsin or Illinois. Ten per cent. will be added if sold on time. One half the 1st of September, 1864, the balance the 1st of September, 1865.

Those buying machines will confer a favor by giving this machine publicity in their respective neighborhoods. When material gets to its usual stage we intend to make it a ninety dollar machine, and should have done it but for the unprecedented high prices of everything to construct machines with.

The Reaper Shop at Afton!

will attend strictly to the repairing of the Webber Reaper. None others wanted. We are prepared to change from chain to belt, put on caster wheels upon short notice. Men will be on hand to repair promptly. Charges light as the cost of material will admit. We shall manufacture none at that place, consequently we will be prepared to repair. Work solicited. All orders should be directed to

STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors of this justly esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem it necessary, in order to give their goods a fictitious, or even an enhanced value, to take a fling at all other bitters, and proclaim in small capitals that they are worthless. Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their merits, and invite your careful attention to the goods we allow our brand upon, knowing as we do so, that our reputation is at stake. The name, "Red Jacket," is taken from the original compound by the native child of the forest, and with the addition of a few herbs by Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the taste, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient rising from the bed of sickness, loss of appetite, distress after eating, dizziness, and all diseases arising from Torpid Liver or Indigestion.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence.
They are a sure preventive of Fever and Ague
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache.
They are perfectly pure and palatable.
They make the debilitated strong, and restore to strength the exhausted.

Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it; alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Patent Medicines.

Good News for the Unfortunate!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves:

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

This medicine is a simple vegetable extract, and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated, it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn case.

To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say. Despair not! the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!
